A new book out on the market is called Invisible Chains: Canada's Underground World of Human Trafficking. The book is available through Chapters.ca and Amazon.ca. The book is written by Benjamin Perrin, an assistant professor at UofBC Faculty of Law and a leading expert in human trafficking. The book launch will take place in Calgary on October 22 and in Edmonton on October 23, 2010. Tickets are free, but you must register through the website <<http://invisiblechains-calgary.eventbrite.com>> or <<http://invisiblechains-edmonton.eventbrite.com>>. The books are only $20 and would probably give us a lot of insight into the problem in this country.

The RCMP has a video and brochures available entitled “Not for Sale.” Just call your local detachment or go onto their website for the order the information. They are doing a lot of work in this field.

The CWL provincial council had undertaken a new initiative, called “Nickels for the North.” We urge each council to start a collection jar for this initiative. It is for the northern CWL members to travel to CWL meetings and conventions. Just have your treasurer collect the money and send a cheque to the Provincial Treasurer. The monies can be sent anytime.

I urge each Council President to register via <euthanasiprevention@on.aibn.com> to receive the very informative newsletter of the Euthanasia Prevention Coalition.

I also would like to recommend that we help people in the Third World countries by buying Fair Trade products. You can buy “Camino” chocolate in different flavors available at Safeway and Superstore. Fair Trade coffee is also available at these stores as well as at Costco. This is very easy to do, so that we can provide other people a better life.

Please remember to collect 1% donations at your meetings for Development and Peace.

May God Bless You All.
