Communique – December 2010

Advent is a season of hope.
Every time we help a person in need, we live the season of Advent.
Advent is a season of peace.
Every time we forgive someone who has hurt us, we live the season of Advent.
Advent is a season of light.
Every time we make a new person feel welcome, we live in the season of Advent.
Advent is a season of love.
Every time we speak in love and not anger, we live in the season of Advent.
Advent is a season to share.
Every time we reach out and help others, we live in the season of Advent.

Below are some websites I thought you might enjoy or find interesting as we journey through Advent.

REMINDERS:

Here is the link for the Elsie Yanik Award nomination form <<http://www.cwl.ab.ca/abmkeyanik.html>>.

Nominations are due in by the end of December. If you have someone in mind for the award but need a bit more time during this busy season to complete the form please contact me and let me know you have a nominee.

Here is the URL for the Deceased Members form <<http://www.cwl.ca/forms/From Reporting Deceased Members.pdf>>. Please note that this form is sent directly to National Office only. After processing National will forward the information to both Provincial and Diocesan councils for their records.

I wish you and your families many blessings this Christmas season,

Gloria L.
